IOWA ACAC IOWA ASSOCIATION

FOR COLLEGE ADMISSION COUNSELING

RIDE Class of 2016

To ensure students equitable treatment by, and access to, the widest array of postsecondary educational options, the Iowa Association for College Admission Counseling seeks to foster positive and productive relationships among individuals, institutions, and other organizations involved in the transition process.

IOWA ASSOCIATION
FOR COLLEGE ADMISSION COUNSELING

Over 800 members: School counselors, in-state and out-of-state public/private institutions, military, and other organizations involved in the transition to postsecondary education.

Public school counselors have received almost $10,000 in grants, since 2014, so they could attend state and national conferences.

Iowa ACAC sponsors an average of 32 College Day/College Night programs, around the state, in the fall and spring.

Over 125 colleges, military and nonprofit organizations participate in our College Day/College Night programs.

Over 13,000 students, parents, and counselors benefit from our college day/college night programs.

Iowa ACAC is one of 23 state and regional affiliates of the National Association for College Admission Counseling

Visit the Hill - An opportunity for secondary and postsecondary professionals to gather at the Capitol, as one voice, regarding legislation affecting higher education.
